

Upcoming Job Opportunities for FNTI's new

"NET ZERO" CAMPUS

We are gathering resumes and cover letters for this exciting and excellent employment opportunity on Tyendinaga Mohawk Territory.

We are giving priority to 'work ready' individuals who seek a strong employment opportunity in the construction field.

The General Contractor has been hired and will be seeking individuals to form a 'base crew' for this Indigenous 18-24 month net-zero construction project. Many additional employment, 'upskilling' and learning opportunities will be filled through sub-contractors. In addition, the 'base crew' may gain experience with the General Contractor on a large building project currently underway in Kingston.

FNTI is an equal opportunity employer, committed to the advancement of women in the trades. We provide a respectful workplace and encourage women who have a desire to further their skills development in the trades to submit a resume. All serious applicants will be included in our labour pool.

We are looking for individuals interested in working in the mechanical, electrical, solar, landscaping, and all other construction disciplines. FNTI is committed to providing contractor/partners with a list of Indigenous candidates interested in working on this project. All serious applicants will be included.

The construction phase of the project is scheduled to commence in early 2022, with completion scheduled in the fall of 2023.

If you identify as Indigenous, have an excellent work history, a strong interest in/or experience in the construction industry, this may be a great opportunity for you and your community. Competitive pay rates and benefits will apply to all jobs offered throughout the project with a goal of 80% Indigenous engagement. Training may be available.

Submit resume and cover letter to ipdresponse@fnti.net describing preferred area of expertise/work you are interested in. References will be required. Closing date for resume submission is December 03, 2021.
